Interior designer Christopher Gaona emailed us about his latest project that I thought I'd share with you all to end of this work week. "Purely interior design, gutted the original space down to the studs. Minimal Decoration emphasis but a fun project for a couple of recent empty nesters here in Los Angeles." Wonderful details in the ceiling and all those built-ins. Thanks Chris!

love the lighting

The warmth of these spaces is so comforting, and combined with bits of color -- perfection! The Hermes orange seems to liven the room up perfectly...I will definitely check out more examples of his work.

So glad you shared :)
Have a lovely weekend*

I just love the lighting and the warmth of the space.
